

I strongly believe that no increase in broadcast ownership be allowed.

There has already been an enormous degradation in journalistic ethical standards since the passing of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. I would like to see that act repealed.

I am a co-owner of the airwaves that the FCC is provided to protect, and will not stand by and let them maneuver my rights away.